

Returns in respect of all property belonging to persons resident in or firms incorporated in enemy-occupied territory, i.e., Denmark, Belgium, Holland and Norway, should also be submitted to the Custodian of Enemy Property, unless otherwise ordered by him.

All French territory in Europe (including Corsica), Algeria, the French zone of Morocco, and Tunisia are also to be regarded as enemy territory for this purpose. In the case of territory now under enemy occupation, such returns are to be filed by the 31st October 1940, as the period of two months after the date on which the property in question vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property—which is the prescribed period during which such returns should ordinarily be filed—has already expired.

3. Persons who entertain doubts regarding the payment of any money due by them to parties in enemy countries (Germany and Italy) and enemy-occupied countries (such as Holland, Belgium and Denmark) are advised to get into touch with the office of the Custodian of Enemy Property or with any of the Scheduled Banks, who have been advised of the procedure to be followed in regard to such payments.
